

The current situation of ensuring financial security in Vietnam

TRAN VAN HUNG

University of Forestry, Dong Nai, Vietnam

Submitted: 09 July, 2019 - Accepted: August 27, 2019

Abstract:

Financial security is currently a matter of concern in many countries to ensure that the financial system is implemented in a stable, safe and strong manner. Based on secondary data collected from agencies and agencies, the article assesses the current situation of ensuring financial security in Vietnam over the past time. Research results show that although many remarkable achievements have been made. Vietnam's economy in general and the banking and financial system in particular are still facing many difficulties. In particular, Vietnam may also face risks in terms of financial security. Accordingly, the article provides some recommendations for ensuring financial security in Vietnam in the current period.

Keywords: financial security, guarantee, current situation.