Dear scientists, researchers and practitioners

The United States Law Center (USLC) is a unit of the Faculty of Law, University of Economics and Finance, Ho Chi Minh City. USLC has the function of researching not only regulations, operating mechanisms and application of US law but also the regional and global institutions that US law has influence over; comparing Vietnam - US law. For the purpose of academic exchange and sharing research results to serve the community, USLC respectfully invites authors to participate in writing articles published on the Center's Website: <https://www.uef.edu.vn/uslc>

Some detailed information about the article:

Content: The article contains content referring to US law; compares laws and related legal issues.

Format: Article in Vietnamese or English with a minimum of 2000 words; citation according to APA standards.

Deadline for receiving and publishing articles: Articles will be received no later than the 20th of each month and published on the USLC Website no later than the 20th of the following month.

Funding: Articles are posted on the USLC Website for the purpose of academic exchange and community service (non-profit), so there are no posting fees or royalties.

Editing: The article is edited by a team of experts with expertise and experience.

We look forward to receiving cooperation from the authors to make the website of the United States Law Center become a website with lots of useful information. Content posted on the website serves academic exchange between scientists and researchers; serves the learning and research of students as well as other subjects in the community.

Please send articles to this email address: uslawcenter@uef.edu.vn

Sincerely,

On behalf of USLC
